I've noticed

I WOULD DO IT

Recently,
I found out

that Toushi
has been staying at his cousin's
place.

With the way
that he excessively
tries to get rid of my friends, I never even imagined...

That he has
friends at the university,
though it must
only be normal

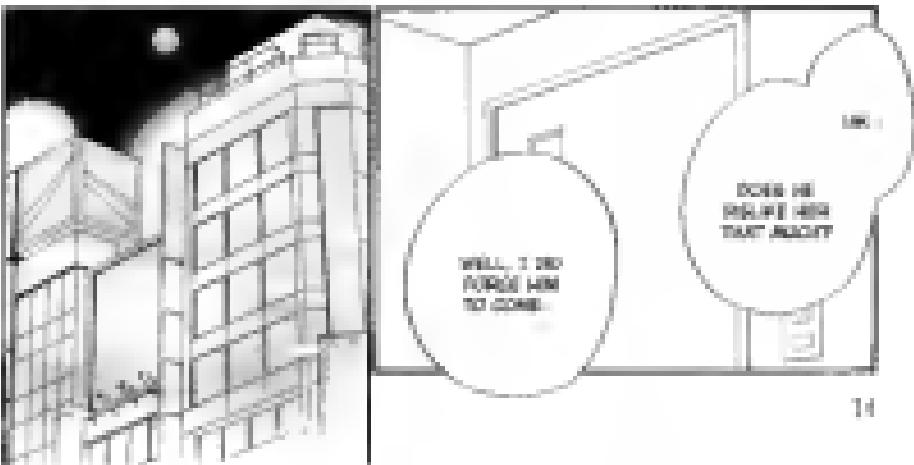

But I wonder,
when Toua is
with his friends,

how does
he feel?

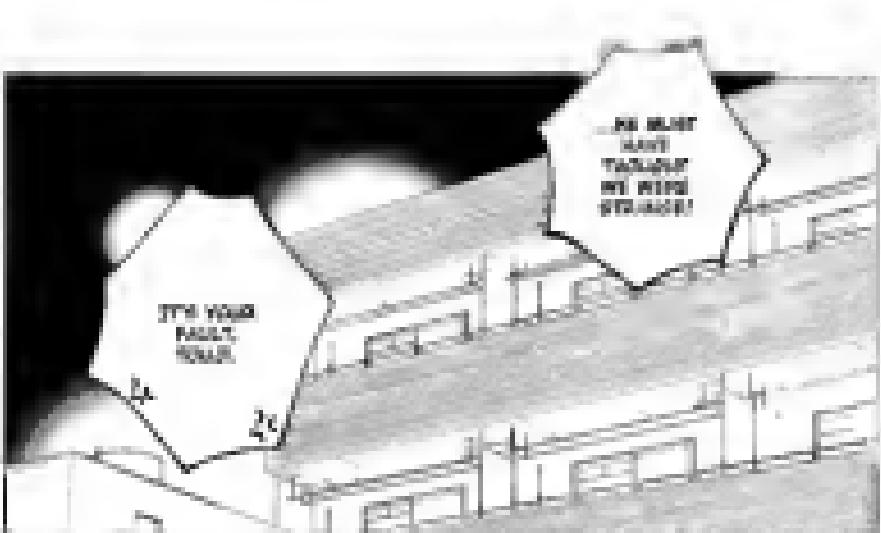

I WISH I
COULD CON-TROL SOMETH-ING.

I feel pissed off thinking about it
It's as though he's deceived me

Another thing that pisses me off, more so, is myself

Just because I patted him a little.
His expression changed immediately, so much so that I thought he's cute

At this note, I'm probably going to be moved by his affection.

It's
difficult for me to draw cute
girls as usual

I drew this about four years ago
it's 2009 now so I wasn't satisfied with the art. I fixed it up a little

"Your Crying
Is a Sweet
Melody"

About the girl where Taku treated her like a terrible, I referred to some magazines for her appearance.
However, she also wears ordinary clothes in the end. I guess I didn't need to reference...

And then, Mikuru and
"beard" appeared
for the first time.
It'd be cool to draw their story someday.

It's
difficult
for me to
draw cute
girls as
usual

"Your Curves Soften
For a Moment"

Drawing an animal is still was much more
difficult

I enjoyed drawing
Matoune in a pose,
though.

"I enjoyed drawing a story in this volume
than about this time..."

"Curses Are Exchanged for Sweet Whispers"

This one is a magazine with the theme of intense feel emotion, so I tried hard though

Relationships between are becoming weaker and weaker

Incidentally I haven't been to Nagoya for long. After I searched the materials online I started longing to go there

It was my first time to drawing a two page chapter in this series.

I'm nervous to know the reaction you had about Touko's past or Yomogi's personality. I've wanted to draw this story for a long time, so I'm happy now. Of course I'd be great if you enjoyed it!

The two of them are getting closer slowly... I guess. I hope you enjoy how their relationship will grow in the future.
